Book Lover Challenge

- Design a cover for your favourite book. Come up with alternative ideas as to how the characters might look.

- Read at least five books (one should be non-fiction). Write a list of the titles and the authors giving them a rating out of 10.

- Write an alternative ending for a book you have read.

- Make a bookmark. Let your imagination go wild and decorate it however you wish. What do we use a bookmark for and why are they useful?

- Write a book review on 1 book (EYFS and KS1) 2 books (KS2) explaining why you liked or disliked the book. You could focus on a certain character that you enjoyed or the style of writing that the author used. Older children may like to include examples from the text of particular phrases or descriptions that sparked their interest.

- Design a Wanted poster for a villain you have read about (real or pretend) Remember to include some information of their appearance and characteristics.

- Design a Hero poster for the hero or heroine of a book you have read (real or pretend). Remember to include some information on why they are worthy of this poster.

- Write an article on whether libraries are a valuable resource to the general public. Remember to give balanced arguments and explain your reasoning.

- Learn what reference books/material can be useful for. You could plan a virtual holiday or day out that includes information on where to stay, what to do when you arrive places to eat, and holiday activities that are available.

- Write, design and produce your own book., This could be a picture book, short story, book of poems, facts or a comic strip. Remember to include some illustrations.
